6. The Council reserves its right to cause the building to be so altered, repaired and reconstructed as it may deem advisable without payment of any compensation to the occupier. Such right will be extended to any alteration, repair or reconstruction of the interior installation of the building should the Council consider it advisable.

In the latter case the Council will place at the disposal of the occupier such other shop as may be advisable in order to enable him/her to continue his trade. The occupier shall have no claim to any indemnity, compensation or damages as a result of such alternation, repairs and reconstruction.

7. The occupier shall not be entitled to sell, transfer, cede, let or otherwise dispose of the aforesaid authorisation.

8. Should the occupier be found guilty by a Court of an offence against any regulations or any other enactment relating to trade being carried out, the Council may, subject to the approval of the Ministry of the Local Government rescind the contract by notice in writing. In that case, the occupier shall forthwith vacate the stall and remove all articles therefrom. He/she shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity whatsoever.

9. If the occupier makes use of any electricity, water or telephone, he/she shall have to make his/her own arrangement for the respective supply at his/her own cost with the approval of the Council.

10. The occupier shall be responsible for the good maintenance of the building allotted to him/her. He/she shall make good at his own costs all damages caused to the building in the exercise of his/her trade.

11. The occupier shall abide by, obey and be subject to the Council Regulations which now are or may hereafter be enforced or passed and nothing herein contained shall be held to affect or limit the full effect of the said regulations.

12. Should the Council decide at any time to pull down and reconstruct the building, the Council shall be entitled to put an end to the contract by giving six (6) months advance notice to the Occupier of his intention to do so and the Occupier shall thereupon vacate the locus at the appropriate date; the occupier shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity, compensation or damages.
