Based on above summarized financial position the Council had a working capital ratio of 2.83:1 and a Quick Acid ratio of 2.81:1. These ratios clearly indicate Council's liquidity position in 2022/2023 and its financial capability to pay its creditors when they fall due. Moreover, the ratios clearly indicate Council had not tied money in stock. However, Council ability to pay its creditors would depend on a better cash flow position and timely repayment of arrears by its debtors. The ratio of Non-current Liabilities to Equity was 3.10:1 which in fact was very high due to the high liability of the Pension Fund held at SICOM and Employee Benefit Obligation regarding sick leave and vacation leave.

3.4 NON-CURRENT ASSETS

The Council had incurred an amount of MUR101M on Property, Plant and Equipment inclusive of Public Infrastructure for the financial year 2022/2023 as summarised in the undermentioned table.

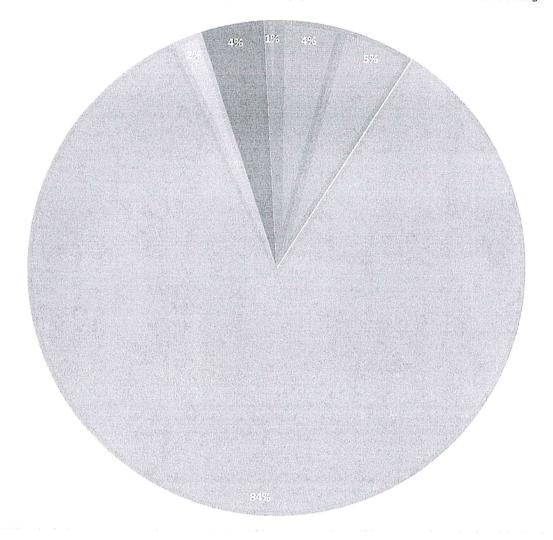

Property, Plant & Equipment	MUR

The highest capital expenditure for financial year 2022-2023 has been incurred under Infrastructure. Much lower amounts had been spent by Council on Building, Motor Vehicles, Computer and equipment and Furniture and Fittings. 4.3 STRATEGIC DIRECTION

Council would continue to improve the provision of services to the inhabitants of its area and to enhance its capacity building in providing more effective and efficient services in an economical way. Our way forward is to have an environmentally friendly region while maintaining and enhancing the infrastructure base in all the 17 villages falling under Council's responsibility. Our Council would strive to increase its outputs with the appropriate combination of inputs. The way forward will for sure come to a halt without additional revenue. With this perspective Council would have to take the opportunity of implementing revenue generating projects while seeking new sources of income to increase its revenue generating capacity. Council is partnering with major economic operators within its region with a view of developing further its administrative area.

In view of these perspectives Council would implement the following projects in the next three years:

- Replacing CFL Lamps by LED ones for Street Lighting Network and increasing on average the lighting points by 1000 yearly.
- Increase the frequency of scavenging service in our jurisdiction with the aim of providing a twice weekly service to households and daily service to economic operators.
- Construction and Resurfacing of some 60,000 square metres of road and 4,600 metres of drains while maintaining the existing roads and drains.
- Provision of an additional modern incinerator at Tyack while upgrading the existing cemeteries and crematorium.
- Renewal of its fleet of vehicles to improve scavenging service and develop further Council's infrastructural networks.
- Implementing Segregation of refuse by providing eco bins in the Villages under Council's responsibility with a view of enhancing the management of waste disposal in our region.
- Upgrading of playfields and construction of mini soccer pitch in different villages of Council's area
- Completion of the construction of a Head Office at Souillac.

The plan is exposed to actuarial risks such as: investment risk, interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk.

The cost of of providing the benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Method. The principal assumptions used for the purpose of the actuarial valuation were as follows:

	Year ending 30 June 2023	Year ending 30 June 2022
Discount rate Future salary increases Future pension increases	6.00% 4.50% 3.50%	5.20% 3.50% 2.50%
Mortality before retirement	Nil	Nil
Mortality in retirement	PA (90) Tables rated down by 2 years	PA (90) Tables rated down by 2
Retirement age	65 Yea	years

The discount rate is determined by reference to market yields on bonds.

Significant actuarial assumptions for determination of the defined benefit obligation are discount rate, expected salary increase and mortality. The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based reasonably on possible changes of the assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period.

- If the discount rate would be 100 basis points (one percent) higher (lower), the defined benefit obligation would decrease by Rs 42.1 million (increase by Rs 53.4 million) if all other assumptions were held unchanged.
- If the expected salary growth would increase (decrease) by 1%, the defined benefit obligation would increase by Rs 23.5 million (decrease by Rs 20.2 million) if all assumptions were held unchanged.
- If life expectancy would increase (decrease) by one year, the defined benefit obligation would increase by Rs 8.3 million (decrease by Rs 8.2 million) if all assumptions were held unchanged.

In reality one might expect interrelationships between the assumptions, especially between discount rate and expected salary increases, given that both depend to a certain extent on expected inflation rates. The analysis above abstracts from these interdependence between the assumptions.

FIGURES FOR IPSAS 39 ADOPTION FOR Discrict council of Savanne - Unfunded For year ending 30 June 2023

The plan is exposed to actuarial risks such as: interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk

The cost of of providing the benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Method. The principal assumptions used for the purpose of the actuarial valuation were as follows:

	Year ending 30 June 2023	Year ending 30 June 2022
Discount rate	6.00%	5.20%
Future salary increases	4.50%	3.50%
Future pension increases	3.50%	2.50%
Mortality before retirement	Nil	Nil
Mortality in retirement	PA (90) Tables rated down by 2 years	PA (90) Tables rated down by 2
Retirement age	65 Yea	years ars

The discount rate is determined by reference to market yields on bonds.

Significant actuarial assumptions for determination of the defined benefit obligation are discount rate, expected salary increase and mortality. The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based reasonably on possible changes of the assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period.

- If the discount rate would be 100 basis points (one percent) higher (lower), the defined benefit obligation would decrease by Rs 23.6 million (increase by Rs 28.8 million) if all other assumptions were held unchanged.
- If the expected salary growth would increase (decrease) by 1%, the defined benefit obligation would increase by Rs 9.4 million (decrease by Rs 8.4 million) if all assumptions were held unchanged.
- If life expectancy would increase (decrease) by one year, the defined benefit obligation would increase by Rs 7.2 million (decrease by Rs 7.1 million) if all assumptions were held unchanged.

In reality one might expect interrelationships between the assumptions, especially between discount rate and expected salary increases, given that both depend to a certain extent on expected inflation rates. The analysis above abstracts from these interdependence between the assumptions.
